"For all the Saints"

Special Parish Meeting

Dear All Saints' Family,

There will be a called Special Meeting for qualified voters of the congregation of All Saints' Episcopal Church on Sunday, May 5, at 10:15 a.m. It will be in the Chapel at All Saints' Episcopal School, located at 9700 Saints' Circle, Fort Worth, Texas.

Agenda: To consider and vote on an amendment to the bylaws.

This is an important special meeting. We must have a quorum of qualified voters for any action to be considered. Please plan to attend.

Who is a qualified voter?

Confirmed Communicants in Good Standing are defined as: a member of the parish (on our official rolls), confirmed in the Episcopal Church, a giver of record, and a regular communicant.

If you are not sure if you are a Confirmed Communicant in Good Standing, contact our Business Manager, Kyle Mankin at kyle@asecfw.org.

If you are confirmed but are not yet a giver of record, it's not too late to make a gift! And, if you have worshipped with us regularly but have not yet formalized your membership, now is a great time to do so! We are glad to help you with this. We want to hear your voice as well.

What an exciting time in the life of our beloved parish!

Stephanie Burk,
Senior Warden

Save the date for Pentecost!

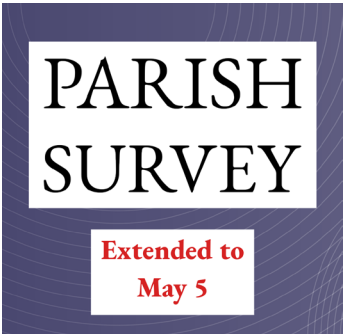

On the Feast of Pentecost, we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit. On the first Christian Pentecost, after the Holy Spirit descended upon the heads of the disciples as tongues of fire, the disciples preached the Gospel in tongues and were miraculously understood by people from across the world. Regardless of their nationality, each one heard the Good News through the power of the Spirit. In that moment, the Church was born. Two thousand years later, the Church continues, and we are also sent out to preach the Gospel in the power of the Spirit.

Join us on May 19 for a combined Choral Eucharist with Holy Baptisms at 10:00 a.m. Stay after the service for a birthday party for the church.

Join us that evening on Sunday, May 19, the Day of Pentecost, for a special Solemn Evensong. This specific Solemn Evensong will feature our own choir as well as the choir of St. Stephen Presbyterian Church – about 30 choristers in all. They will be singing the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in B minor by Thomas Tertius Noble, and the anthem O Thou Who Camest From Above by Philip Stopford. Evensong is at 5:00 p.m. and is followed by a reception for all.

The Parish Survey

More than 200 parishioners have taken the Parish Survey! However, many have been unable to make it to church to take the survey, so by request, the final day of the survey has been pushed to May 5, the same day as the Special Called Meeting. The survey may be taken in the Student Union after both the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services, and during the week at the White House from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Many thanks to all who have taken the time to complete this important survey. Your participation will help shape the future of our church!

Thank you,

Parish Survey Committee: Bill Brammer, Cynthia Carroll, Steve Fleming, Claire Jones, John Kent, Suzanne Kent, Jeff Nichols, Richard Terrell, Suzanne Wood

The ECW met on Friday, April 12, for a happy hour, hosted by Patty Philips and Nancy Searway. The Episcopal Church Women talked about potential events that they might want to attend, and other details about the future of the ECW.

Men's Fellowship Beer & Barbecue

The Men's Fellowship met on Tuesday, April 16, for their second annual Beer and Barbecue night. Every participant brought their favorite beer, and side dishes to share. The night was headlined by a smoked brisket and ribs cooked by Fort Worth chef and metal artist Kent Bunnell. Along with dinner, the men began planning for the Mother's Day Brunch. The men will be working with the EYC to celebrate the mothers of All Saints' on Sunday, May 19, at 10:10 a.m.

Vacation Bible School: Camp Firelight
At the All Saints' School Middle School building, 9700 Saints' Circle, from June 10 - 14.

Registration for Vacation Bible School is open! Join us June 10-14 at "Camp Firelight" for a week of fun! This program will teach us about people in the Bible who experienced the gift of a trusting relationship with God. In addition, it will teach us to trust that God will go with us, lead the way, share wisdom, give us peace, and spark joy as we celebrate the good news of Jesus in our own lives and the lives of others. We will also learn ways we can connect with and put our trust in God whenever we are afraid, challenged, or called to do God's work in the world and share the Good News of God's love through Jesus Christ.

If interested in volunteering, please contact Bailey Loewenstein at bailey@asecfw.org.

Items needed include shelf-stable 1% white or chocolate milk, juice boxes, fruit snacks, fruit cups, applesauce, granola bars, and crackers. Please drop off your donations in the baskets at the back of the All Saints' Episcopal School Chapel.

Preaching with a Paintbrush: Scripture Through Caravaggio's Eyes

For so much of Christian history, the faith of the people was shaped not by the words of Holy Scripture but by images. Caravaggio's paintings of Biblical scenes bring the gospel to life. His work employs shocking realism, dramatic manipulation of darkness and light, and visceral human emotions. In them, Caravaggio preaches the gospel in his own voice. What does Caravaggio's work teach us about Christ? How might it help us interpret the Biblical stories he portrays? Join us for a special Eastertide Bible Study as we explore these questions and more.

Wednesday night Bible Study with Mthr. Hill
