"For all the Saints"

Dear All,

I'm tickled pink to share with you that Mthr. Hill has been named as PIC and will start in that position on Jan. 1st. Mthr. Hill has been a part of All Saints' for 20 years, the last 4 of which as an ordained minister. As a layman, she was involved in many areas of parish life, most notably serving in the liturgy on Sunday morning and in our Kenya mission. We discerned she had a vocation to the priesthood, and sent her to seminary at Yale. In 2020, Bp. Scott Mayer sent Mthr. Hill back home to serve at All Saints' as a priest on my staff. Since returning to All Saints', she has served in Outreach and Christian Education and as Vicar Precentor of the sacred liturgy.

Mthr. Hill has been formed by All Saints' and both understands and appreciates our unique culture and catholic heritage. I know of no other priest in The Episcopal Church who loves All Saints' and her parishioners more than Mthr. Hill. She will serve you well!

As our parish bylaws indicate, the Senior Warden, Stephanie Burk, will also have expanded responsibilities after my retirement.

Now, about the settlement. While we hoped to have a finalized agreement in place by the end of this week, the documentation of the settlement remains a work in progress, and the settlement is subject to approval by the bankruptcy court. I am told to expect approval of the settlement by mid-December. I'll keep you all posted and let you know when I can provide more detail regarding the process for obtaining approval of the settlement.

Fr. Jambor

Advent at All Saints'

Adopt-a-Family

It's time for Adopt-a-Family! Adopt-a-Family is one of many ways that our parish serves our community during the holiday season. We provide gifts, clothing, and other necessities to children in need from schools all over Fort Worth. Adopt-a-Family has been an All Saints' tradition for more than 25 years. In that time, we have served more than 2,000 children.

Join us for a wrapping party at the White House on December 6, the Feast of St. Nicholas of Myra at 5:00 p.m. hosted by the ECW. This is a perfect opportunity for you to wrap your Adopt-a-Family gifts. You can participate in Adopt-a-Family in many ways! We need volunteers to buy gifts, wrap gifts, deliver gifts, and to donate money. To volunteer, email Wende Dwyer-Johnsen at wendedwyer@gmail.com.

All Saints' Sunday by Amy Robinson

All Saints' Day, the feast of title for our parish, was celebrated in glorious style on Sunday, November 5. It was a beautiful fall morning and All Saints' parishioners came together to worship and to witness Holy Baptism at a combined Solemn Choral Eucharist. Under the direction of Clive Driskill-Smith, the All Saints' brass quintet and timpani combined with the All Saints' choir began the procession with a festive air and a favorite hymn, "For All The Saints".

With sunlight streaming through the chapel windows, seven Baptismal candidates, Godparents, parents, proud grandparents and other extended family filled the first several rows of the chapel. Fr. Jambor literally had his hands full with infants and young children as he poured Holy Water and administered the sacrament of Holy Baptism to each. Fr. Jambor also delivered an inspirational sermon about All Saints' Day being a time to remember all God's Saints, those with us and those loved ones on the other side of the thin veil.

All Saints' Day also marked the retirement of our dear Mthr. Lynne Waltman, who has been at All Saints' since 1987. Fr. Jambor recognized her ministry by recounting numerous high points from her many years of service. At the conclusion, the entire congregation rose to their feet in applause and appreciation. Mthr. Waltman will be greatly missed.

Following the Eucharist, all parishioners were invited to celebrate both All Saints' Day and Mthr. Waltman's ministry over lunch. Everyone processed to the Student Union for a bountiful meal provided by the Parish Life Commission. A hearty menu of chicken fried steak, potatoes and green beans was served. The highlight was an incredible gold cake prepared by Jerra Lewis, and a rich chocolate cake, Mthr. Waltman's favorite.

All Saints' Sunday was a magnificent day for our parish! The morning brought joy for the newly Baptized, precious memories of our departed loved ones, bittersweet goodbyes to Mthr. Waltman and hope for the future of our parish.
